DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 28, 2019, Kevin Carasiti ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of an Influenza vaccine administered on November 15, 2017. (Petition at 1). On June 29, 2021, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. (ECF No. 30).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated September 5, 2021, (ECF No. 36), requesting a total award of $10,836.88 (representing $10,253.50 in fees and $583.38 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 35). Respondent reacted to the motion on September 13, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, and defers resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. (ECF No. 37). By email correspondence on September 14, 2021, counsel for Petitioner informed the staff attorneys office that Petitioner did not intend to file a reply. See Informal Remark, September 15, 2021.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $10,836.88 (representing $10,253.50 in fees and $583.38 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
